

Philippe R. Calame is CEO and Head of the Multi-Asset, the Wealth Management group, of LumX Asset Management (Suisse) SA since 2017. In 1992 he joined S.G. Warburg in London and worked in the UK, Europe, Japan and HK before going to New York in June 1995. He was appointed associate director in 1996 and ran the Global Equity desk in New York from 1996 to 1998. CEO of COGES which he joined in 1998 until Jan 2013, when COGES was acquired by Banque Eric Sturdza SA. He was a member of the Executive Management and Investment Committee from 2013 to 2016.

Mr. Calame has degrees in finance and law from the University of Fribourg in Switzerland, and professional qualifications including Securities and Futures Authority (SFA) registration from the UK, and Series 7 and 63 and National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. (NASD; now FINRA) in the US.